

Non-Discrimination Notice

Compliance 08-2022

Cameron Memorial Community Hospital, including Cameron Medical Group, Rural Health Clinics and its affiliates (hereafter referred to "CMCH") follows applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate against any person on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, mental or physical disability, religion, sex (including sexual orientation, and gender identity), pregnancy-related conditions, health status, diagnosis, political affiliation, immigration status, income source, marital status, and/or any other basis prohibited by law. CMCH does not exclude people or treat them differently because of any of these classifications.

CMCH provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic)

CMCH provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

If you need these services, notify CMCH staff or contact our Civil Rights Coordinator at 260-667-5175.

If you believe CMCH has not provided these needed services or discriminated against you in another way, you can file a complaint by mail or calling our Civil Rights Coordinator to assist:
